WALK NO 8

St Anne's Chapel – Ringmore- Cockle Stream – St Anne's Chapel (Incorporating new footpath from St Anne's Chapel and Public footpaths Numbers 14, 15, 19, 24 & 27) Distance: Approx 3½miles Grading: Easy/Moderate Time: Approx 2 hours.

This walk is a circular walk commencing and finishing at St Anne's Chapel. Mainly farmland walking there are some good views along the way and takes in the charming village of Ringmore.

Take the road from St. Anne's Chapel towards Ringmore passing the Pickwick Inn on the right hand side after a short distance look out for a Public Footpath sign in a field on the left hand side. Enter the field and turn right and proceed along the field boundary keeping hedge to the right. At the corner of the field take the sharp left and proceed with hedge on the right to footpath signage. Turn right at this junction go through gate and cross road to field gate. Go through gate and immediately turn left and proceed along boundary keeping hedge to the left. At the corner of the field turn right and continue along the footpath between fencing.

There are good views towards Kingston at this point. Inside the fence to the left is a new plantation in its infancy.

Shortly the footpath bears left and on reaching the field edge turn right through the gate and after approximately 20 yards on reaching the fingerpost turn left and follow the field path along the boundary keeping the hedge to your right.

The path now proceeds over farmland and on reaching the field corner bear right through gate and then turn left along the field boundary. At this point you can enjoy views of the sea and Burgh Island as you proceed towards Ringmore. Go through gate and proceed downhill. All Hallows Church can be seen to the right before reaching a field entrance gate on right hand side. Pass over this entrance and go through the next gate to a Permissive Path. The path now continues for a short distance before reaching the road to Ringmore. Enter Ringmore by this road and after a short distance the centre of the village will be reached.
